SPS Commerce Named a "Best Place to Work" for Sixth Consecutive Year by the Minneapolis/St. Paul Business Journal

On-Demand Supply Chain Software Provider Honored for Creating a Dynamic Work Environment and Employee Satisfaction

MINNEAPOLIS, July 24, 2012 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- SPS Commerce (Nasdaq:SPSC), a leading provider of on-demand supply chain management solutions, today announced that it has been named to the Minneapolis/St. Paul Business Journal's 2012 list of Best Places to Work. Winners were selected based on employees' responses to an independent survey addressing corporate culture, employee benefits, advancement possibilities and more. SPS Commerce was previously awarded this distinction in 2005, 2007, 2008, 2009, 2010 and 2011.

"SPS Commerce is pleased to be named a Best Place to Work for the sixth consecutive year," said Archie Black, CEO of SPS Commerce. "Our goal is to provide a workplace where employees are valued, feel challenged to excel and enjoy teaming with hundreds of talented, dedicated and innovative professionals. At SPS, employees find a hard-working environment that rewards performance with more than 30 percent of our workforce receiving promotions in 2011. SPS has hired more than 100 experienced professionals and recent graduates to date in 2012."

The Best Places to Work initiative was created to recognize and honor those companies that have created positive work environments, recognize and share best practices, promote local employers, and provide valuable feedback and data to participating companies that will assist them in measuring levels of employee satisfaction and engagement. Winners will be honored at a luncheon on August 23, 2012, at the Minneapolis Hilton and in a special segment of the Minneapolis/St. Paul Business Journal's August 24th issue.
