

B2B Integration Provider, SPS Commerce, Named to JMP Securities' The Hot List of the Best Privately Held Software Companies

Minneapolis, Minn., April 15, 2008 - SPS Commerce, the leading provider of Web-based EDI services, today announced that it has been named to JMP Securities' The Hot 100 list of the best privately-owned companies in the software industry as identified through JMP Securities' software research team. .

"We are pleased to be one of eight companies nationwide selected for this honor in the Demand and Supply Management category," stated Archie Black, president and CEO of SPS Commerce. "SPS is unique in helping all trading partners in the supply chain, including retailers, vendors, 3PLs and more to connect with one another and deliver improved supply chain visibility and efficiency. As a SaaS B2B integration provider, each SPS customer leverages our proven solutions and integrations that are used every day by thousands of trading partners across the globe."

The Hot 100 report is available from JMP Securities.