

1,000 Suppliers Using Sage MAS 90, MAS 200 and MAS 500 ERP Systems Subscribe to SPSCommerce.net For Supply Chain Integration

SPS' Supply Chain Integration Services Exchanges More Than One Million Supply Chain Documents Annually Between Retail Trading Partners

Minneapolis, Minn., July 13, 2009 - SPS Commerce, the leading Software-as-a-Service (SaaS) trading partner integration center provider, today announced that more than 1,000 companies using Sage MAS 90, Sage MAS 200, and Sage MAS 500 ERP solutions have subscribed to its outsourced supply chain integration services, resulting in more than a million business documents electronically in the past 12 months. SPS Commerce's Electronic Data Interchange (EDI) and label services can be directly integrated with MAS 90, MAS 200, and MAS 500 systems to eliminate manual order entry and fulfillment processes. This proven integration enables suppliers to improve accuracy, boost customer satisfaction, and provide timely communication of purchase orders, invoices, shipping notices and other critical business documents with a retail customer, 3PL, international sourcing company, or other trading partners in the supply chain.

"Suppliers using Sage Software's ERP solutions have been automating how they send and receive critical supply chain documents using SPS' integrated services at an increasing rate," stated Archie Black, President and CEO of SPS Commerce. "Volume from our current Sage customer base is up 16 percent, as suppliers add more trading partners and transactions to their SPSCommerce.net services. We are proud to deliver a proven, multi-tenant, lower cost of ownership solution for companies using MAS 90, MAS 200 and MAS 500 that is trusted by more than a thousand similar organizations every day."

SPS Commerce's 37,000 customers use its supply chain services to exchange order, shipment and billing data with more than 1,300 retailers and distributors using EDI, eXtensible Markup Language (XML) or similar formats.
