SPS Commerce Releases Integrated Fulfillment for Acumatica

Ensures seamless integration with Acumatica's cloud-based ERP and enables the automatic exchange of business transactions

MINNEAPOLIS, Aug. 23, 2017 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- SPS Commerce, Inc. (Nasdaq:SPSC), a leader in retail cloud services, today released Integrated Fulfillment, powered by MAPADOC, for Acumatica, a cloud-based business management software that enables small and mid-size companies to accelerate their businesses.

The solution helps users optimize performance, streamline operations, reduce costs and better manage inventory. These benefits are particularly important to retail, wholesale distribution, manufacturing and other industries that need real-time order, shipping and payment status information in order to meet customer demand and service expectations.

In addition, the Acumatica solution utilizes native functionality providing a fully embedded and streamlined user experience. As a result, the Integrated Fulfillment solution enables users and their retail partners to directly and seamlessly exchange order data through Acumatica, meeting trading partner requirements and eliminating invoice and purchase order processing errors.

"With the release, Acumatica users can now automate fulfillment and integrate their financial, distribution, manufacturing, accounting and CRM functions through the SPS Commerce network," says Peter Zaballos, senior vice president and chief marketing officer, SPS Commerce.

"The SPS/Acumatica integration allows us to act quickly with increased insight, efficiency and flexibility," says Tony Carita, owner and chief financial officer, L&J Accessories. "With it, we are also able to maximize the value of our trading partner relationships. With the seamless integration with Acumatica, it has allowed us to increase the speed in which we process orders AND improve our accuracy."
