

SPS Commerce Named to SupplyChainBrain's 2010 100 Great Supply Chain Partners List

Honor Is a Result of a Six-Month Online Poll of Supply Chain Professionals who Nominated Solutions that Positively Impacted their Company's Efficiency, Customer Service and Overall Supply Chain Performance

MINNEAPOLIS, Aug 16, 2010 (GlobeNewswire via COMTEX News Network) -- SPS Commerce (Nasdaq:SPSC), a leading provider of on-demand supply chain management solutions, today announced that it has been named to SupplyChainBrain's 2010 100 Great Supply Chain Partners list. This honor is the result of a six-month online poll in which supply chain professionals were asked to nominate vendors and service providers whose solutions have made a significant impact on their company's efficiency, customer service and overall supply chain performance.

"In 2010, we received more than 2,800 nominations from small and large companies covering scores of different industries," states Brad Berger, publisher of SupplyChainBrain. "More than 600 vendors of every conceivable type of supply chain activity were nominated - from very specialized technologies, to a wide range of third-party logistics, transportation and consulting services. The 100 companies that received the most qualified nominations are represented on this year's list which is published within the July issue of SupplyChainBrain's magazine and on SupplyChainBrain.com for the remainder of 2010."

SupplyChainBrain's award coverage featured the following anonymous comments from SPS Commerce submitted as part of the polling:

"SPS has been instrumental in the migration of our in-house EDI system to an outsourced solution. They have been very professional and helpful in the extremely overwhelming change for our company."

"SPS is quick to resolve the issues and is responsive to our requests."

"We have transitioned our entire EDI processing operation to SPS Commerce and, as a result, we have significantly improved the accuracy and timing of orders, invoices and ASNs with our trading partners, while also reducing operational costs."

"They make EDI a breeze with a user-friendly interface, helpful customer service and knowledgeable implementation analysis."

"All of us at SPS Commerce are honored to be included in the 100 Great Supply Chain Partners list for 2010," said Archie Black, president and CEO of SPS Commerce. "We strive to deliver innovative solutions that bring new efficiencies and visibility to the supply chain, while providing superior customer service to our thousands of customers worldwide. I'd like to thank our customers who anonymously nominated SPS for this honor."

About SupplyChainBrain

SupplyChainBrain is the world's most comprehensive information resource for supply chain news, intelligence, strategy and innovation. In addition to the fundamental principles of supply-chain management, SupplyChainBrain identifies emerging trends, technologies and best practices, forward thinking ideas and cutting-edge solutions--and continues to write and report about these as they evolve and mature. SupplyChainBrain targets the high-level executive, who is concerned with such strategic issues as managing risk, aligning the supply chain with corporate planning, achieving competitive advantage, balancing customer demands with the need to control cost, and improving the bottom line.
