

SPS Commerce Expands International Operations by Opening New Office in Hong Kong

Local Staff to Provide Support and Expand Sales Activities in This Region

MINNEAPOLIS, March 8, 2011 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- SPS Commerce (Nasdaq:SPSC), a leading provider of on-demand supply chain management solutions, today announced that it has expanded its operations in Asia and opened an office in Hong Kong. The new office will provide direct sales and support for SPS' retail industry customers that source, manufacture, or sell goods in Hong Kong, and leverage additional resources from SPS' office in Beijing, China.

"As SPS' Asian operations expand, we want to provide local support to our customers and their trading partners to help them streamline their operations and improve supply chain collaboration," commented Archie Black, President and CEO of SPS Commerce. "We are pleased to welcome our Hong Kong staff and open this office to better serve our existing customers and expand our sales efforts in this region."

SPS' corporate headquarters are in Minneapolis, Minnesota and it has support offices throughout North America, Asia and Europe.
