SPS Commerce and Navarre Partner to Deliver Supply Chain Solutions for Logistics

Integrated Services Provide Rapid EDI Compliance to Support New Retail Customers

MINNEAPOLIS, March 28, 2013 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- SPS Commerce (Nasdaq:SPSC), a leading provider of on-demand supply chain management solutions, and Navarre Corporation (Nasdaq:NAVR), a vertically integrated, multi-channel platform of e-commerce services and distribution solutions for retailers and manufacturers, today unveiled a new supply chain service for the retail industry. The offering allows suppliers to rapidly send retail compliant shipping notices and other order fulfillment documents to meet their customer's electronic trading requirements. The solution includes SPS's on-demand EDI services that are prewired to work directly with Navarre's distribution and logistics offerings.

"After evaluating several EDI offerings, we were impressed by SPS's ability to continually excel in innovation, reliability and customer service for their more than 50,000 customers," said Ward Thomas, President of Distribution at Navarre. "Many of our retail clients need to quickly become EDI compliant to meet their customer's trading requirements. The integrated solution we have developed with SPS allows them to do so with ease."

"SPS is delighted to partner with Navarre, a recognized leader in retail distribution and logistics," said David Novak, executive vice president at SPS Commerce. "The new solution is well-suited for suppliers as it enables them to grow with confidence knowing that their EDI will scale to support their business and support their distribution requirements."

The integrated supply chain solution is available from SPS Commerce and Navarre. Visit our website to request more information.
