

SPS Commerce Names Jim Kieley as Vice President of Implementation

Former Microsoft Consulting Services Executive and 24-Year Industry Veteran Joins On-Demand Supply Chain Solution Provider

MINNEAPOLIS, April 28, 2010 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- SPS Commerce (Nasdaq:SPSC), a leading provider of on-demand supply chain management solutions, today announced that Jim Kieley has joined the company as its Vice President of Implementation. In this role, Mr. Kieley is responsible for leading SPS Commerce's file integration implementation and delivery strategy, which supports integrations into more than 40 ERPs and Warehouse Management Systems (WMS) including JD Edwards, MAS 90/200/500, Microsoft Dynamics GP, Microsoft Dynamics NAV, NetSuite, QuickBooks, Oracle, and SAP.

Prior to joining SPS, Mr. Kieley spent 13 years at Microsoft Corporation, most recently leading the largest Microsoft Consulting Practice in North America, where he was responsible for more than $51 million in annual consulting revenue. He has been recognized for his technical and leadership skills by participating in Microsoft's worldwide High Potential Leadership Development Program. Before Microsoft, Mr. Kieley was an independent consultant helping customers create solutions for the Microsoft platform and worked in the aerospace industry providing custom, real-time data acquisition and jet-engine testing solutions.

"Jim Kieley brings 24 years of experience in professional software consulting and leadership positions, working in or with companies of all sizes," stated Archie Black, President and CEO of SPS Commerce. "He has a proven ability to direct and manage Service Delivery groups to maximize customer satisfaction and implement the latest technologies. We are pleased to welcome him to our team."
