

SPS Commerce CEO Named as a Finalist for the Ernst & Young Entrepreneur of the Year® Award in Minnesota and Dakotas

Archie Black Recognized by Business Leaders for Successful Innovation and Growth Strategies

Minneapolis, Minn., April 24, 2007 - SPS Commerce, a leading trading partner integration center offering fully outsourced Electronic Data Interchange (EDI) and Catalog functions, announced today that its Chief Executive Officer, Archie Black, has been named as a finalist for the Ernst & Young Entrepreneur Of The Year Award in Minnesota and Dakotas.

"I am honored to be recognized by our area's business leaders," said Archie Black, President and Chief Executive Officer of SPS Commerce. "Since taking leadership at SPS Commerce in 2001, I have had the opportunity to work with talented and ambitious individuals who helped me to execute a dramatic new course for our organization. Today our outsourced services are used by thousands of customers every day, and have successfully turned SPS Commerce into the leading outsourced EDI provider serving 10,000 subscribers."

The Ernst & Young Entrepreneur Of The Year awards program celebrates its 21st anniversary this year and continues to recognize the leaders and visionaries who are creating and building world-class businesses. Awards are given to entrepreneurs who have demonstrated excellence and extraordinary success in such areas as innovation, financial performance, and personal commitment to their businesses and communities.

Award winners will be announced at a gala event on Tuesday, June 19 at the Guthrie Theater in Minneapolis, Minnesota.
