

SPS Commerce Hosts 13th Annual Customer Meeting to Explore Global Retail Supply Chain Trends

Retailers, Grocers, Distributors, 3PLs, and Suppliers Attend Annual Event to Discuss Supply Chain and e-Commerce Best Practices and Learn About the Retail Universe Online Community

MINNEAPOLIS, Nov. 17, 2011 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- SPS Commerce (Nasdaq:SPSC), a leading provider of on-demand supply chain management solutions, recently hosted its 13th annual customer council meeting at The Graves Hotel in Minneapolis, Minnesota.

The invitation-only event welcomed a number of SPS' customers and partners, including retailers, distributors, 3PLs and suppliers, and featured presentations on social media, e-commerce and supply chain best practices. The highlight of this year's event was the unveiling of the Retail Universe online community, which links thousands of retailers, suppliers, logistics providers and other supply chain partners to make finding new trading partners easier.

"Every year I look forward to interacting with so many of SPS' customers at the Customer Council," said Archie Black, president and CEO of SPS Commerce. "We were delighted to see many new faces and longtime customers over the two-day event, and to introduce them to the Retail Universe."

SPS' Retail Universe is accessible by more than 40,000 organizations today and created to help:

- Retailers identify suppliers with specific capabilities and source new suppliers and products to add to an online or offline product catalog
- Vendors promote their capabilities, such as support for drop shipping or specific EDI capabilities, and share item data and digital assets
- Logistics providers market their unique capabilities, such as support for specific fulfillment models, geographies served and specialized warehousing attributes
