TAG Partners with SPS Commerce

NetSuite and Sage solution provider selects SPS Commerce's platform to enable highly cost-effective and reliable trading partner collaboration through integration and analytics

Minneapolis, MN and La Jolla, CA - May 7, 2013 - SPS Commerce, Inc., a leader in enterprise retail cloud services, announced that it has partnered with TAG, a premier software consultancy firm, focusing on design, enhancement and implementation of enterprise application initiatives.

There is a terrific synergy between TAG and SPS Commerce," said Dan McGuckin, Information Systems Division head at TAG. "SPS's products are a great compliment to the ERP/CRM solutions that TAG represents".

TAG, an authorized business partner for NetSuite and Sage solutions, provides their clients access to a world class development platform and an innovative line-up of cloud-based business management solutions. SPS Commerce delivers breakthrough cloud-based supply chain solutions that make trading partner connections more collaborative and profitable with prewired integrations, comprehensive analytics and a team of retail-dedicated experts. SPS Commerce was named the 2012 NetSuite SuiteCloud Developer Network Partner of the Year.

"We are delighted to partner with TAG, a leader in NetSuite and Sage user communities," said David Novak, executive vice president at SPS. "As a SPS partner, they are helping companies strengthen their trading partner relationships through collaboration, analytics and much more by leveraging SPS's network of more than 50,000 customers. It is a winning combination for our joint customers."
