

SPS Commerce CEO, Archie Black, to Present at the Merrill Lynch Private Company Software Conference

Minneapolis, Minn., June 23, 2008 - SPS Commerce, the leading provider of SaaS B2B integration services, today announced that Archie Black, president and CEO, and Kim Nelson, CFO, at SPS Commerce, will be presenting at the Merrill Lynch Private Company Software Conference on Thursday, June 26, 2008 at Merrill Lynch's Boston, MA office.

At the invitation of Merrill Lynch, SPS Commerce's executives will discuss its company's mission and growth, the SaaS B2B integration market, and how outsourced, multi-tenant solutions are connecting global trading partners, including retailers, suppliers, 3PLs and sourcing companies, for timely and accurate supply chain visibility