

SPS Commerce to Present Its Next Generation Analysis and Integration SaaS Solutions at Open Systems' Conferences

SPS' SaaS Services Fully Integrate with Open Systems' TRAVERSE to Help Suppliers Cut Inventory Carrying Costs with More Accurate Forecasting and Improved Customer Relations

Minneapolis, Minn., June 2, 2009 – SPS Commerce, the leading Software-as-a-Service (SaaS) trading partner integration center provider, today announced that David Novak, executive vice president of business development at SPS Commerce, and other company representatives will be presenting SPS' next generation Trading Partner Intelligence and integration services at Open Systems' Customer Excellence and Partners in Profit Conferences during the week of June 7, 2009, at the South Point Hotel, Casino & Spa in Las Vegas, Nevada. Fully integrated with Open Systems' TRAVERSE® solution, SPS' on-demand services deliver supply chain visibility to suppliers and retailers that are essential to increasing forecast accuracy and responding quickly to volatile consumer demand.

"Open Systems partners with companies that offer leading edge solutions that dramatically increase the value our customers receive from our integrated solutions," said Paul Lundquist, Vice President of Sales at Open Systems. "SPS Commerce is such a company. We are pleased that SPS has fully integrated their industry-leading SaaS services with TRAVERSE, delivering advanced integration and analysis solutions that many Open Systems customers have already embraced. SPS' participation in this year's event will help other TRAVERSE customers to see the proven value of SPS' next generation SaaS services on their bottom line and forecasts."

SPS Commerce will be showcasing its pre-wired, integrated analysis and integration services during the following sessions during the Open Systems' conferences:

- Boost Revenues and Reduce Costs with Trading Partner Intelligence Monday, June 8, 2009, 3:00-4:00 p.m. MT
- EDI and TRAVERSE: Alternatives for Cutting Costs in a Difficult Market Tuesday, June 9, 2009, 3:00-4:00 p.m. MT and Thursday, June 11, 2009, 8:00-9:00 a.m. MT

"Today's buyers and merchandise managers are tasked with optimizing assortments and purchasing decisions to maximize sales, minimize inventory, and control out-of-stock conditions," stated David Novak, Executive Vice President of Business Development at SPS Commerce. "Daily, they must decide which products and quantities to purchase and which vendor to select for the order. Buyers will choose vendors they know can perform and meet store-level customer demand. With our next generation analysis service, Trading Partner Intelligence, SPS equips vendors using TRAVERSE to meet and exceed these customer expectations while cutting inventory carrying costs."

Attendees can also see SPS Commerce at booth #11.
