Intuit Silver Developer Unveils Next Generation QuickBooks Integration, SPS Commerce Adapter for use with QuickBooks

1,200 Suppliers Using Intuit's QuickBooks Subscribe to SPSCommerce.net for Supply Chain Integration

Minneapolis, Minn., Sept. 22, 2009 – SPS Commerce, the leading Software-as-a-Service (SaaS) trading partner integration center provider, today announced that more than 1,200 suppliers using Intuit's QuickBooks accounting solutions have subscribed to its outsourced supply chain integration services. As an Intuit Silver Developer, SPS Commerce's next generation adaptor, _SPS Commerce Adapter for use with QuickBooks®_, has undergone a rigorous approval process to ensure that its SaaS Electronic Data Interchange (EDI) services can be directly integrated with QuickBooks.

Integrating SPS' EDI and label services with QuickBooks eliminates manual order entry and fulfillment processes to improve accuracy, boost customer satisfaction, and provides timely communication of purchase orders, invoices, shipping notices and other critical business documents. Users of the _SPS Commerce Adapter for use with QuickBooks_ gain seamless access to 2,700 world-class EDI maps used across 1,300 retailers, grocers and distributors, unlimited international customer support, support for multiple order management models, and SPS' outsourcing model eliminates the risk and cost of technology and staff.

"QuickBooks users are looking for ways to work more efficiently and easily with their trading partners," said Archie Black, President and CEO of SPS Commerce. "Directly integrating our proven services with their QuickBooks application offers a cost-effective solution that improves accuracy and customer satisfaction from their retail customers. SPS Commerce is proud to be named an Intuit Silver Developer and deliver a proven, multi-tenant, low cost of ownership solution for companies using Intuit's QuickBooks application."

SPS Commerce Adapter for use with QuickBooks features support for QuickBooks Pro, Premier, Enterprise, and QuickBooks Canadian edition and is currently available from SPS Commerce.
